MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes HOPE Program is to assist low-income tribal members with supplemental assistance during genuine crisis situations and increase the tribal members’ understanding of the need for self-sufficiency in daily living.

GUIDELINES

The following guidelines distinguish allowable types of assistance that may be provided by the HOPE Program. An application must be completed before assistance can be provided. If assistance has been provided by another tribal program during the same time frame and for the same service, services will be denied. Intentional double-dipping from two (2) or more tribal programs will constitute suspension from each program for a period of (1) year.

For purposes of these guidelines, IMMEDIATE FAMILY MEMBER shall be defined as a husband, wife, father, mother, sister, brother, son or daughter. In questions of guardianship, legal documents must be provided.

Exceptions to any guideline must be approved by the HOPE Program Director.

Certain services are INCOME BASED and are noted as such. The following chart can be used to determine the eligibility of an applicant based on family size and NET income.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Household Size</th>
<th>1</th>
<th>2</th>
<th>3</th>
<th>4</th>
<th>5</th>
<th>6</th>
<th>7</th>
<th>8</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

The Hope Program guidelines will be used as a guide for the purpose of providing crisis situation assistance to tribal members. The crisis situations addressed within these guidelines are not meant to be all-encompassing. Other situations will be considered by the HOPE Program Director on a case-by-case basis.

Assistance with prescriptions will be considered on a case-by-case basis; however, for liability reasons, the HOPE Program will not assist with the purchase of any narcotic prescription(s) or eyeglasses.

If a tribal member has exhausted their rental, utility, and food assistance eligibility per the HOPE guidelines and are not eligible during a time of crisis, the tribal member may sign a one-year document stating that if services are provided during an in-eligible period, they will not receive assistance for a one-year time frame. The one year will begin at the time assistance is provided during an ineligible period.
